Welcome Comment

Good Morning Year 4! As this would be the last day of our half term, I would like you to reflect on the past two weeks and choose something you have felt proud of. Complete your 'I am proud of in your diary' to record this.

Today's active task: The Bunny

English Task

Today, have a go at this task.

You will need to use your imagination to paint a picture for your reader. Be as imaginative as you can.

Try to use a range of sentence openers, adjectives (describing words) and maybe even include some speech. What will happen in the magic show? Who will be the audience?

Maths Task

For today's task, head over to Times Table Rockstars and spend at least 15 minutes practising. Once you have done this, go into the sound check area. Can you beat your score? You could 'live play' against your classmates if they are online at the same time as you! Once completed, why not have a go at creating your own Easter themed Maths questions – these could include all operations (add, subtract, multiply, divide) and other areas of Maths you have been learning about e.g. time, symmetry.

Foundation Subject Task

Complete your country in any way you wish – You could write a list of animals that inhabit it or invent your own animals! Totally your choice. You might write a travel guide or leaflet to persuade people to come and visit. For a bit of fun, watch the video. Once you have had a good giggle, I would like you to spread some joy! You may have seen on the news that rainbow pictures are starting to pop up all over the country. Your task is to create a picture of a rainbow with whatever resources you have available. You could do this as a collage with magazines or paper and colour with crayons or felts. Pop them up in the window with a positive message. Remember to take a photo!

Any Further Guidance

I know this has been an unusual and tricky time and it is going to take some time to adjust for every one. We are all in this together! During the 'Easter break', I won't be sending any work, but keep reading, keep using Rockstars and keep being fabulous. If you would like to email, I will be checking this once a week. Remember that Miss Crawley would be asking you to stay safe and be kind. That message is even more important now. Have a restful Easter and look after each other. Miss D
