Welcome Comment

Good morning everyone! We hope you have had a relaxing weekend and that you are all well!

Have you tried to do some reading at home yet? Oxford Owl have lots of books for you to choose from. <https://home.oxfordowl.co.uk/reading/>.

Now that you've received your pack from school which includes 3 different books for you to read, you can read more at home! Two of them will be for you to have a go at reading by yourself and one is a library book that a grown up or older sibling could share with you.

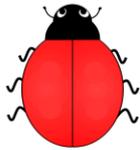

Here is the link for your daily phonics session if you'd like to have a go;

English Task

This week we are going to be sharing a new book based on our 'On the Farm' topic, it is another Julia Donaldson book and it is called 'What the Ladybird heard'. Below is a link for you to listen to the book and to see the pictures too – enjoy! https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=u_ngDWYmqQ

Maths Task

Did you know that most ladybirds have the same number of spots of both sides?

This week we are going to be using our ladybirds to count in doubles.

For today's task we would like you to draw your own ladybird, like this one and then keep it for tomorrow but do not draw any spots on it yet!! Remember to draw 2 eyes, 2 antennae, 2 red wings and 6 legs.

Foundation Subject Task

Today's task is to listen to this story and see if you can recognise who is reading the story!!!! If the link doesn't work then type in 'Mrs Digger reads' into Google and scroll down to the videos and look for Mrs Digger!

Any Further Guidance

We hope you are enjoying this week's activities. We have loved seeing what you have been up to each day. Have fun today!

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to email us. We are here to help!

From Mrs Digger and Mrs O'Connell ☺
