Welcome Comment

Hello everyone! We have been very impressed with what you have done this week. We love seeing your e-mails showing us your super work, please keep them coming!

Here is the link for today's phonics sessions. Just scroll down to see the Set 1 and Set 2 sessions for today.

English Task

For today's activity we would like to make a wanted poster to help try and catch those naughty criminals! Draw a picture of either Hefty Hugh or Lanky Len and then write a sentence underneath describing what they look like or what they are wearing. I wonder if you will be giving a reward on your poster? Do you think there is anything else important that you will need to put on it?

Maths Task

Today we would like you to do some ladybird maths! If you click on the link below it will take you to a ladybird game. We would like you to have a go at the counting game where you need to count how many spots are on the ladybird. If you fancy an extra challenge there is also a matching and ordering game.

Foundation Subject Task

Ladybirds can be red, yellow, orange, brown and even black! We would like you to create a picture of your own ladybird. It can be any colour you would like. Can you put a pattern on the ladybirds back? I wonder what you pattern you will choose; will it have spots, stripes or maybe you have thought of something different. I wonder what you will use to colour in your ladybird. Will you use crayons, felt tips, paint or maybe you have thought of something else!
