Welcome Comment

Welcome to Fridays learning Year Six, I hope you are all well. Remember it's not too late to get your Science challenge entries in, make your flying machines come alive. Also, if you are feeling sporty, head to www.activehw.co.uk/worcestershire-school-games where there are daily competitions for you to take part in from 10:30am

Below are today's activities, go for it!

English Task

As always, I would like you to begin by reading for fifteen minutes of a book of your choice. Next, here is today's conundrum. Remember to make as many words as you can as well as to try and work out the nine-letter word of the day!

E I S L A C L F A

Today I challenge you to create your own character for an adventure story. This work can go into your journals. The character can be real or fantasy. They can be from any genre of writing. Let your imagination run wild. I have attached a template which will guide you through creating your character. When you have created them, send a photo to year6@suttonpark.worcs.sch.uk so I can see the results.

My character's name is

My character is years old

Maths Task

To begin with, head to <https://trockstars.com/> to wake yourselves up this morning. Next, can you make the numbers below total 942. You can use all four operations if you need to.

Foundation Task

For a bit of fun to finish the week, I would like you to head to <https://www.bbc.co.uk/newsround/51318780> where you will take part in a quiz. It will test your knowledge of what has been in the news this week. Good luck, and I can't wait to hear your scores so let me know at year6@suttonpark.worcs.sch.uk

Quiz of the Week! How well have you been following this week's news?

Any Further Guidance

That's all for today and this week Year Six. I will be back on Monday for our final week of learning. Make sure if you are not in school that you contact year6@suttonpark.worcs.sch.uk with photos of some work you have produced, or just to let me know how you are. Take care. Mr Salisbury
